

Peak Community Services provides scholarships

Peak Community Services and the Peak Community Services Foundation presented three $500 scholarships to area youth who plan to study for a career working with people with disabilities.

On May 13, Broc Conrad received a scholarship at the Logansport High School honors ceremony.

On May 28, at Pioneer, Dawn Murphy and Amanda Nethercutt also received scholarships.

Peak Community Services provides scholarships to youth who live in Cass or Pulaski County.