

Peak Community Services

"Our basic work is to help people achieve their dreams," said Executive Director Don Weikle, "whether that's having a job, an apartment or being part of the community. We strive to make people aware that a disability does not lessen a person's humanity." Peak first opened in 1954 and now employs 185 people at many sites in a six-county area.