

Rouser joins Peak Community Services

Lita Rouser has joined Peak Community Services as community relations associate.

In this position she will facilitate enrollment into group homes, employment, family and community services.

Rouser has a bachelor's in psychology and has spent 18 years in the human service industry. Her background includes marketing, public relations and business development.

She lives in Cass County with her husband, Rick, and daughters Erika and Audrey.

For more information Peak Community Services visit www.peakcommunity.com.

Lita Rouser