

*Press Release
November 2004*

Make A Difference Day Team Works On HVAC For Group & Community Homes

A team led by Randy Gardner, HVAC Program Chair at Kokomo's Ivy Tech, made a difference on October 23. They did maintenance and repair on furnaces in three group homes owned by Peak Community Services and on one home that is rented by a Peak Community Services consumer.

Along with the service, the group put together recommendations for future service needs and a preventive maintenance plan.

Randy Gardner, HVAC Program Chair, Ivy Tech Kokomo

From left to right, Mark Lyons, Kyle Donovan, Jake Cummins, Robert Ervin, and Ron Nelson gave a day to make a difference for persons with developmental disabilities.

