

Press Release

June 2005

Staff Honored for Service to Agency

Peak Community Services held a staff appreciation party on Friday, June 17. The party was to thank staff for their dedication, and for a job well done on the agency's receipt of a 3-year certification from CARF, the Commission on Accreditation for Rehabilitation Facilities.

In addition, several staff members were honored for their longevity with the agency.

Receiving a gift certificate for five (5) years employment were Steve Brundage, Ronda Deitrich, Vicki Howard, Gayhart Kimbrel, Bonnie Musselman, Shelly Neuendorf, Tammy Nuss, Kathy Rhody, Phyllis Wilhite and Lois Wouster.

Receiving a gift certificate for 10 years employment was Kelly Reno.

Deb Girton received a gift certificate to honor 15 years of service to the agency.

In addition, the Employee of the Year was named. The employee of the year is selected from the employees of the month from both Woodlawn Center and Pulaski Developmental Services. This year's Employee of the Year is Ray Aldridge, Maintenance Manager.