Wow. What a spring! We are still soggy and mushy from this strange winter we left behind; we are waiting for our trees, flowers and shrubs to catch up with Spring. And man, have we been busy here! We've had changes in policies, and we've had focus groups, and we've had meetings to discuss all the changes and to follow up with the focus groups and surveys, and we haven't even gotten to June, when we can expect to see the CARF surveyors here for a couple of days. I'm thinkin' that we are REALLY going to enjoy Memorial Day Weekend at the end of the month....
